Inns of Character

Welcome to The Wykeham Arms

The Wykeham Arms is a unique 18th century coaching inn, situated between Winchester Cathedral and the famous Winchester college. Named after William of Wykeham, the 14th century Bishop who founded the nearby college.

The 14 comfortable period bedrooms combined with the charisma of this inn will make your visit a memorable one. The Wykeham Arms has an established reputation for its excellent home cooked food and is a popular venue for locals and visitors.

Entering the Wykeham is taking a step back into the past. It has a very strong affinity with the scholarly establishment of Winchester College and the curiosities and memorabilia jostle with each other for space. You may even find yourself sitting at one of the colleges' old desks, complete with inkwell.

Private receptions, dinner parties or small social events can also be catered for. Please contact the inn for further information or menus.

Guest review – "This is a charming hotel in a central location. The service was very good, the room very comfortable and spacious and the restaurant excellent. Another advantage was a car park and parking permits if that is full, which is essential if you are taking a car."

In order to achieve the best service levels and reassurance of our quality standards, all our Inns have been assessed and thoroughly inspected by the respected organisation of 'Quality in Tourism'

Eat

Lunch or supper here is a real treat. Head chef Bill and his excellent team serve classic pub food with a simplicity that allows the high quality ingredients to stand out.

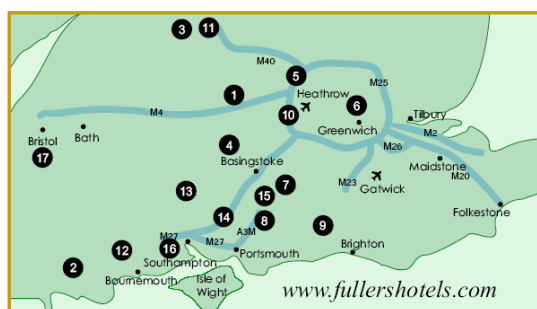

At lunch, try the famous Wyk Pie with a bottle of claret from our excellent wine list. For supper, informed diners make for the new season rack of Hampshire Lamb with Dauphinoise potato. Finish with a dark chocolate nemesis perhaps or a passion fruit and shortbread Mille Feuille with raspberry coulis.

Sleep

Our very comfortable beds are individuals, some of the rooms have four-poster beds - ideal for honeymooners - and the wonderful Bakehouse Suite, located on two floors overlooking the garden area, has a separate sitting room.
