

Inns of Character

Welcome to The White Hart

You will find The White Hart Inn nestled in the picturesque village of Stockbridge, famous for the River Test, one of England's most sought-after game rivers, which flows through the middle of the High Street.

Once a 15th century coaching inn, a recent refurbishment has kept many of the original features, retaining its charm and character from the well-appointed bedrooms to the busy bar and dining area.

Private receptions, dinner parties or small social events can also be catered for. Please contact the inn for further information or menus.

Guest review – “What a fantastic little place, the staff are second to none. Extremely helpful, above all they were so polite and friendly that you can't help but want to return in the future. The area was very quiet and the old church was beautiful.”

In order to achieve the best service levels and reassurance of our quality standards, all our Inns have been assessed and thoroughly inspected by the respected organisation of 'Quality in Tourism'

Eat

Chris, Lenka and chef Martin, their young foodie, will serve you a menu of comforting pub classics including steak and Fuller's ale pie. The pub is now using more and more locally produced products on it's dishes.

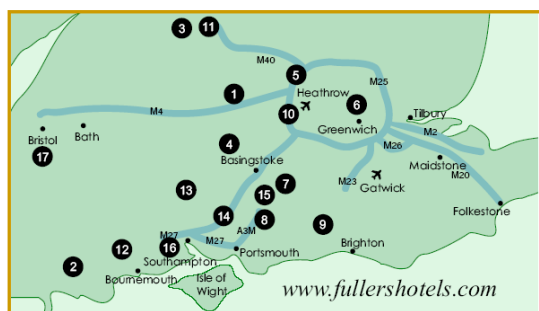

Tuck into a hearty full English breakfast - or a Benedict muffin - before striking out in the Test Valley for a day's fishing.

Sleep

All the bedrooms at The White Hart are comfortably furnished, some with period features and one with a delightful four-poster bed. Ideal for honeymooners.
