

Inns of Character

Welcome to The Fisherman's Haunt

Originally built as an inn dating back to 1673, this old world property is full of period features, character and charm. All 12 bedrooms are stylish and furnished to an excellent standard. We take great care in choosing our beds and bed linen, so that our guests have a comfortable and relaxing sleep.

The restaurant enjoys an excellent reputation for good home-cooked food, using the finest local produce, good wines and Fuller's award-winning beers.

The Fisherman's Haunt is close to the New Forest, within easy reach of Christchurch and Bournemouth and is ideal for the country lover and angler, with the River Avon being close by.

Guest review - A great place to stay. A very comfortable room with a high quality finish to both bedroom and bathroom. Great food for both breakfast and evening meals - good menu with a great selection on the 'specials' board for evening meals. Great location for both coast and New Forest. Would happily stay here again.

In order to achieve the best service levels and reassurance of our quality standards, all our Inns have been assessed and thoroughly inspected by the respected organisation of 'Quality in Tourism'.

Eat

Keith, Ruth and their team serve up super lunches and suppers that include London Pride steak pie and the Fisherman's Skillet of fresh fish. Where possible, our produce is bought locally and we are members of New Forest Marque. You can round off your meal with some lovely Jude's Ice Cream, made with love in Winchester.

Start the day's activities with a classic full English breakfast washed down with a fair-trade coffee.
