

Inns of Character

Welcome to The Bull Inn

The Bull Inn is a traditional 16th century inn. Today, visitors and guests are enchanted with its character and uniqueness. Having seven recently refurbished, luxurious, en suite bedrooms, our guests tell us our beds give the best night's sleep ever!

The Bull Inn has an exceptional reputation for wonderful food, fine wine and Fuller's award-winning beers, and has been awarded a Silver Accolade by Quality in Tourism.

This quintessentially English inn is also mentioned in the novel (Three Men in a Boat).

"Sonning is the most fairylike little nook on the whole river. If you stop at Sonning, put up at The Bull, behind the Church. It is a veritable picture of an English country inn".
(Jerome K Jerome)

Guest review – "We found everyone friendly and welcoming, nothing was too much trouble. Food was excellent, and plenty of it. Room very comfortable. A lovely spot to stay by the Thames. Well worth a visit. Would stay there again."

In order to achieve the best service levels and reassurance of our quality standards, all our Inns have been assessed and thoroughly inspected by the respected organisation of 'Quality in Tourism'

Eat

Food offered at the Bull Inn has a reputation for its excellence and originality.

Christine and her team will prepare you splendid suppers that will delight you.

Start the day with a hearty classic full English or continental breakfast.

Sleep

The seven recently refurbished bedrooms in this 16th century inn are individually and delightfully furnished to reflect its age and history.

All the rooms are located on the first floor and include DVD/video facilities, CD player and WiFi.

Like all Fuller's Inns we offer a high level of comfort by providing top quality beds and fine bed linen.
